WILSON & MORGAN BARREL SELECTION

Twenties & Older

Glen Keith 21yo

"Sherry Wood"

As delicate as a single malt whisky can be, a velvety caress... Few whiskies are so rounded, soft and creamy: a rare example of flavour intensity without aggressiveness, with an alcohol content which is almost not perceivable. At the nose it's characterized by heather and orange blossom honey, a malty fragrance and a hint of smoke. But it's the mouthfeel that conquers: absolutely delicate, buttery and smooth... and yet with a robust body and an almost syrupy thickness. This is not a lightweight whisky: on the contrary it's quite flavourful, but it never bites. Extremely long finish on cereals, honey, sugar coated ripe bananas and apples. Very elegant, juicy, biscuity... without ever becoming too overwhelming. A rich and silky malt.
