Glenburgie 21yo

"Traditional Oak"

Imagine yourself in a mountain field full of daisies and daffodils, while the cool breeze brings a hint of sap and pine needles... This is the scenario that will meet you when approaching a dram from this unique, very subtle and complex Glenburgie! Aromas of honey, chamomile, hay, fresh flowers and aromatic resin mix in an incredibly fascinating way to lure you in, but that's just the start of the experience. Its taste just as delicate, fragrant yet rich and bold, with the same soft palette of honey, balsamic camphor, flowery flamboyancy; notes of fresh oranges with a touch of beeswax. The subtle sweetness then leaves stage, and a malty dryness takes place, together with a whiff of black pepper and black liquorice. Stunning and incredibly complex!
